3. Your letter No. ICON/Autonomous Status/317/2024, dt.08.11.2024.

In pursuance to the UGC approval for autonomous status to Indirani College of Nursing, Puducherry, I am directed to convey that the Pondicherry University accords conferment orders for autonomous status for a period of 10 years from the academic year 2024-25, subject to ratification by Academic Council and Executive Council of the University.

This conferment order is issued subject to fulfilment of the following conditions by the college.

- The College should obtain Indian Nursing Council's (INC) and Tamil Nadu Nurses Midwives Council's (TNNMC) approval for existing UG/PG courses every year. It should also obtain INC and TNNMC clearance for any new course / increase in intake in existing courses every year.
- The College should adopt INC prescribed course structure and syllabus and pedagogy, the evaluation Methodology recommended by INC for all UG/PG courses. However, an autonomous college has freedom to upgrade the syllabus to provide focus on contemporary issues, technological changes etc.
- The college should obtain NOC from Government of Puducherry and Parent University's Consent of Affiliation (COA) for starting new courses/increase in intake in existing courses before submitting its proposal to the INC.

- d) The College should strictly adhere to the academic calendar of the INC for completion of admissions, recognition and registration of students, conduct of regular classes, scheduling of semester exams including the scheduling of Practicals and Theory examinations at the end of every semester.
- e) As per INC directions through video conference, parent University to conduct Theory and practical exams by appointing external examiners and submits the detail report along with video clipping of the conduct of practical exams to the INC directly.
- f) All new courses proposed by the College shall be in the given discipline for which the Institute was established.
- g) Any modification made to the INC's approved course structure and syllabus design and developed by the Board of Studies of the college shall be submitted to the School Board of the Pondicherry University.
- h) The College shall register all the students admitted to it for different UG/PG programmes within one month after the admissions every year and submit the details to the parent University.
- i) There is no annual affiliation fee collected by the parent University. However, it extends all the services such as provision of University nominees to different committees, provision of NOC/COA to apply for different statutory requirements, approval of course structure and syllabus for the courses if any proposed by the College, maintaining the students database, etc, at a prescribed fee for each service.
- j) The college should arrange to collect the UDF and sports fee etc, from all the students and remit to the University.
- k) The College should create and maintain INC prescribed infrastructure, college buildings, class rooms, labs, auditorium, seminar halls, Hospital facilities, student amenities, Library, Library resources, sports grounds etc.

- l) The College should recruit INC specified number of Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors, Tutors in each branch of specialization. There should be sufficient number of senior faculty members to guide PG projects in all branches wherever PG programmes are offered.
- m) The University reserves the right to conduct surprise inspection to all autonomous Colleges to verify the infrastructure, availability of qualified faculty members, patient load in the attached Hospital, policy documents designed by the College for admissions, academic activities, examinations, maintenance of different registers, etc., and reserves the right to call for annual returns in a prescribed format, required data for the preparation of annual report of the University, submission of information about the Institute to the statutory councils like Executive Council, Academic Council of Pondicherry University, UGC, INC, TNNMC information required for meeting the parliamentary committees, RTI, CPGRAMS, CBI, court and other legal bodies etc.,
- n) The College shall create an additional Endowment Fund at University prescribed rates on starting of new courses/increase in intake in existing courses.
- o) The University may admit students who completed their courses to its convocation for award of degrees/diplomas at prescribed fee fixed for the autonomous Colleges by the University.
- p) The University reserves the right to intervene into the conduct of exams restricting the freedom of the Autonomous colleges if it notices any deterioration in quality standards, malpractices, student grievances, court cases and such others relating to examinations.
- q) The College should not use the University logo in any document (both soft and hard copies) excepting that it may mention that the college is autonomous under Pondicherry University.
- r) The College should Undertake to abide by all other Regulations revised from time to time which are applicable for Autonomous Colleges designed and implemented by UGC, Parent University, Statutory councils, Ministry of Education, Govt. of India, Pondicherry Government and such others.

- s) All autonomous colleges should adhere to the submission of periodical reports to UGC as per the regulations governing the autonomous colleges in prescribed formats specified their in.

This has approval of the Competent Authority.

Yours faithfully,

(RAJNEESH BHUTANI)
